

WOMEN'S ANIMAL CENTER

Volunteer of the Month

CHARLES YARMEL

Charlie has been with Women's Animal Center since 2014, and has come in nearly every week during his time with us. Though he's no longer able to walk our dogs, he still makes a point to come and show the dogs some love every Saturday. No matter the weather or the state of the dogs. Muddy, wet, slobbery: doesn't matter; as Charlie says, "I'm washable!" His humor, his dedication, and the love he has for these animals are unmistakable, and it puts a smile on our faces to count him among the WAC family.

THANK YOU, CHARLIE!

We're so thankful you're a part of our team!
